Experience and Expertise

A member of the firm's Tax Planning and Compliance Practice, Nathan has more than 4 years of experience in public accounting working with small to mid-sized CPA firms. He has a background in tax preparation, consultation and planning, as well as accounting support and business consultation.

Nate has experience in individual, trust, corporate and partnership taxation and routinely assists clients along every stage of their accounting, consulting and tax compliance needs. Through his experience in a wide variety of tax scenarios, Nate has gained a unique ability to understand all aspects of the tax implications of each client's financial picture and is able to help clients identify and advise to achieve their individual financial goals.

Prior to joining MW&A, Nathan held positions at three other local CPA firms and gained experience with a diverse array of clients ranging from young families just getting started on their financial journey to high net worth individuals looking to preserve and pass on their wealth or ensure that their legacy's live on through their philanthropy and dedication to charitable causes.
