Experience and Expertise

A principal of Mann Weitz, Ellyn brings more than 30 years of experience in public accounting to her role as the firm's Tax Planning and Compliance Practice Leader. In this role, she is responsible for developing and overseeing the firm's tax planning and compliance policies and procedures.

Ellyn has particular expertise in providing tax planning and advisory services to privately held companies, professional service firms and high net worth individuals. She focuses on building long-term relationships with her clients by understanding both their professional and personal goals and developing tax and business strategies to help achieve them.

Prior to joining Mann Weitz, Ellyn served as Controller for AGA Foods, a food distribution company in Chicago. She also worked at Laventhol Horwath as a Supervisor in the Tax Department.
